
Archaeological and Historic Sites

A survey for archaeological sites was performed on lands for which we had permission. This resulted in the identification of 52 previously unknown prehistoric sites and the verification of 5 previously recorded sites. This number is relatively low considering the drainages that the preferred alternative crosses. Their significance and the assessment of the effects the proposed roadway will have on these sites will be addressed when the final design is prepared.